Further Description of Important Features Colonial mode of the Georgian Revival style. Characterized by angular massing, symmetrical facade and abundant yet tasteful classical detailing. Exterior brick chimneys on E & W facades contribute to overall symmetry. Classically detailed porch supported by standing Doric columns crosses the S & E facades.
History and Significance Active example of high style architecture by prolific KC architect.
Description of Environment and Outbuildings Private driveway to N leads to 1½ story brick two car garage with gable roof. Classical siding and an exterior brick chimney liken it to the main house.
